NORWAY AND VICINITY

The county commissioners have inspected the new municipal court room. The building is now nearly ready to be turned over to the tenants. The new court room will be a very convenient and attractive room. The view from the windows is out to Pike's Hill.

Beryl Foster was given a reception by shopmates and friends, Monday evening, March 21st, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Winfield Allen at South Paris. During the evening light refreshments consisting of punch, ice cream and fancy crackers were served. Master Dale Allen in behalf of the children in attending room presented his aunt Beryl with a fine oil ring. A large number of guests were present and a delightful evening enjoyed. Miss Foster has accepted the position of assistant fore lady with the Berry Shoe Co., Portland and will leave for there in a few days. The company departed at a late hour and all were united in wishing Beryl success and happiness in her new field of labor.

Mildred and Rouleure.

Monday evening, Mildred and Rouleure, the world-toured absolute masters of mysteries, presented an excellent even ng's entertainment at the Opera House, with a fair sized audience present.

Rouleure is an artist in the art of mystifying an audience, and causing illusions and deceptions to prevail throughout the evening. Among the astonishing surprises were, My Little Kimono, The Arrival of Rouleure, Modern Miracles, Fantastical Fancies, The Clown and the Bear, and A Daughter of the South.

Among many tricks was the selection of several cards by members of the audience, and as the missing card was called for it rose from the pack on the stage. The fourth one was torn up and one piece retained, but rolled the missing card from a cigar, a 20-center, with the piece missing.

From a bottle he turned some water, and upon request turned out whatever "spirits" was desired and upon returning to the stage broke the bottle and came a guinea pig with the ring he had borrowed from the audience about his neck.

There were tricks of all kinds with handkerchiefs, money made to come from all sources and in fact a hundred and one slight of hand tricks.

Mildred Rouleure, "the Bewildering Star of Mystery," gave an excellent exhibition of telepathic seances. She was blindfolded on the stage audience, and Rouleure passed through the audience, different ones told him their names, and whatever question they were thinking about, and answer the same.

Rouleure then put her to sleep, and he passed around the audience and different ones told him something they wanted her to do, and returning to the stage he pointed to the first one and Mildred went to the board and wrote the time, pointing to the second, she immediately danced the next number, and the match on the floor and returned it to the owner, and for another picked up a box of candy and counted out six pieces and returned the box, etc.

Among other specialties was the Rising Generation, which was in the form of a man who came upon the stage, and keeping time to the music gradually grew from a man of about five feet to one over eight. Several solos were sung by Mildred Rouleure, Jr., and the Musical and the Maid, Williams and Miss Melburn caused an unlimited amount of merriment by their songs and gestures.

The last act was the flight of Princess Iris. She entered a cage and brought out a person wrapped in a sheet, and another wrapped in a sheet of cloth. Rouleure also brought out two from the cage where apparently no one was. Rouleure and Mildred both entered the cage and soon the doors were opened and no one was there. The wrapping was taken from these and they had brought to the stage from the cage and there stood Mildred and Rouleure, wrapped in the covering. How they did it—you tell.

"The Flaming Arrow"

That beautiful scenic production of the west, as it really was in the early days in the vicinity of Fort Reno when Indians were having most frequent fighting and the United States soldiers were ever on alert, "The Flaming Arrow" will be presented at Norway Opera House on Monday evening, March 27. Although at first thought one would expect a play full of blood and fire, this red coat evolutions and other stereotyped features.

The plot is consistent and naturally developed; comedy and pathos are intermingled in a pleasing manner, and each act has a surprising and effective climax. The electrical and scenic effects are marvelous, in fact no comparable.

Adjourned Town Meeting.

The adjourned town meeting was held at the Opera House, Monday afternoon. The meeting was called to order by the moderator, A. S. Kimball, who read the article regarding the curfew law and called for the report of the committee on the same.

George Howe moved the meeting adjourn indefinitely but as the moderator had called for the report it was read by Emil O. Herne and was as follows:—

Curfew Law.

Section 1. No child under sixteen years of age and no child attending the Norway schools shall be on or remain on any street, alley or lane or in any store, shop or in any other public place in the town of Norway in the night time after nine o'clock in the afternoon from the first day of May to the thirty-first day of October, both inclusive, or after the hour of eight o'clock in the afternoon from the first day of November to the thirty-first day of April, both inclusive, of each year, unless accompanied by a parent, guardian or other person having a legal custody of such minor, or unless the employment of such minor makes it necessary to be upon such street, alley or lane, or in such store, shop or public place after said hours.

Section 2. To aid in the practical enforcement of this by-law it is made the duty of the Selectmen of said town to cause the fire alarm signal to be sounded five times immediately after the clock on the town hall tower finishes striking the hour as indicated in section one.

Section 3. Violations of section one of this by-law shall be punished by fine not exceeding three dollars for each offense with cost of prosecution.

George Howe withdrew his motion and moved the report not be accepted but accepted but by a show of hands it was a vote that it be accepted. The committee in charge of making the curfew law was the school committee and the board of selectmen.

It was voted to appoint Judge Wm. F. Jones to take the Curfew Law to Judge Savage of the Supreme Court in session at the court house and for approval.

The meeting adjourned.

Judge A. R. Savage approved the curfew law and it was signed and sealed by him, Tuesday, at the court house.

[Communication.]

Curfew Law Again.

EDITOR ADVERTISER.—If the attempted meeting for perfecting methods of putting the Curfew Law into practice was thwarted and turned into a farce, as is reported, would it not be well to inquire into the personal reasons of the parties who so strenuously object to our attempt to protect our young folks?

If those people have any personal interest in the matter (as would appear) they should not object to being given to the fact.

Our High school is stigmatized as "Breeders' School" by a neighboring (not neighborly) town, and it seems high time that the authorities went on record as trying to devise means to improve the deplorable condition.

Anyone who tries to obstruct such attempts must be supposed to be in favor of present state of affairs. Dollars ought not to be considered in the matter, but the salaries of a few good officers to enforce the Curfew for awhile would be cheaper than for the town to have a few fatherless children to support, as might happen if nothing is done; and the town would also be irretrievably disgraced if they did nothing in the matter but to blindly acquiesce, and adjon!

Yours in favor of the Curfew,
CORA M. W. GREENLEAF.

Crepe Paper Hop.

A very pleasant event took place Tuesday evening at the Opera House in the form of a "Crepe Paper Hop" and was one of the prettiest dances ever held in town.

To the strains of the music furnished by Stearns' orchestra about eighty couples fell in line for the grand march, which was led by the floor manager, George L. Curtis and wife, and the aids, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Ridlon, Mr. and Mrs. James N. Faver, Ronelle Bicknell and Hazel Bicknell, and Harry Luck and Ethel Flood of Oxford.

Nearly all the ladies were gowned in costumes of crepe paper and the scene was extremely pretty as the company started on the grand march. There was a handsome glare of color as the dancers moved about the hall and the rustle of the paper to the rhythm of music made the scene even more attractive and alluring.

There were costumes of every color and were made in a wide variety of styles.

There was a large number in the gallery and nearly all seats were taken.

This event was under the direction of Fred A. Cummings and was for the benefit of the Universalist church.

A Pleasant Talk.

At a recent meeting of the Barton Reading club, in addition to the regular program, Mrs. B. F. Bradbury gave a talk about her recent visit New York, which deserves special mention. In her vivacious, pleasing manner she took her hearers with her to the different places of interest which she visited, naming several club functions, various places of entertainment and interest, the beautiful effect of the electric lighting of streets and theaters, until the fortunate members present felt that the rising tide of thanks and hearty applause were but small return for the pleasure she had given them.

Her generous sharing of a good time will be long remembered.

Sophie Tafts of Jay is visiting her friend, Mrs. J. T. Rowe.

Joe Harrison will be given a tryout by the Brockton, Mass., base ball team this spring. He is an infielder and considered by experts to be a good shortstop.

For the past few years Harrison has been playing ball in Norway. Harrison is also a boxer and has appeared at the Unity club.

Mr. and Mrs. Robley Morrison of Rumford, were at Mr. Freeland Howe's the past week. While there Mr. Morrison was ill with tonsillitis. He has recovered and they returned to Rumford.

Mr. Morrison is a graduate of the University of Maine and is chemist of the Oxford Paper Company.

Mrs. Orren Tubbs.

Elizabeth Bethiah Tubbs, widow of Orren Tubbs, died at the home of her son, Orren A. Tubbs, at Portland, Saturday, March 18. She was stricken with a stroke, Wednesday.

Mrs. Tubbs was born in Norway, Aug. 10, 1827, the daughter of Nathan and Amelia (Wood) Horr. She attended the Norway schools, and married Orren Tubbs Oct. 15th, 1848. He died seven years ago. They had three children: George E. Tubbs, cashier of Norway Savings bank, died Sept. 22, 1909, Mrs. A. (Tubbs) Evans and Orren A. Tubbs, both of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Tubbs lived in Gorham, N. H., forty-four years and in Lancaster, N. H., five years. They came to Norway several years ago and enjoyed their pleasant home on Beal street. Mr. Tubbs was a successful merchant all his active business life. Mrs. Evans lived with her parents and siblings until her death they lived in their home in Norway till last fall, when they sold their residence here and went to Portland to live with Mrs. Tubbs' son, Orren A. Tubbs.

The lady by death of her husband and oldest son was a sad misfortune for her.

Mrs. Tubbs had been a devout member of the Congregational church for fifty years. She was a member of Norway Grace and W. C. T. U.

Prayers were held at her late residence in Portland, Monday, March 20th, at 2:30 p. m., by Rev. Mr. Wright. The funeral was held at the Congregational church in Norway, Tuesday, March 21st, at 1:30 p. m. Rev. J. R. Bruce spoke words of comfort to the mourning relatives and friends.

A flock of 35 wild geese was seen by Mrs. Joseph L. Lary at Round Pond, Wednesday morning. The bird saying is that when the geese begin to pass over winter is broken. In this case a good snowstorm was in progress, perhaps it is the last.

Laura N. Lovett of Camden is visiting her friend, Mrs. George T. Tubbs. They had not seen each other for twenty years. Miss Lovett has been in the cook at Kenos for several years; she has also been pastry cook at other leading hotels in Maine.

The revival meetings at the Methodist church, under the leadership of Mrs. Frances Adams, the Evangelist, are full of interest. Next Sunday evening, Miss Adams will preach on the "Ten Commandments." This is one of her strongest sermons and a crowded house is anticipated.

There will be no evening services at the Congregational church next Sunday evening as there will be a service at the Methodist church at 7 o'clock. There will be preaching by the evangelist, Frances B. Adams, who is conducting services at the church, and special music. Everybody is invited to attend these services.

Norway Sewer Charter Granted.

The legislature has granted a sewerage charter for the Norway Village Corporation. It gives privileges with almost no limit, and the right to tax a butter up to seventy-five percent as their property may be improved also to take water for flushing purposes from the lake.

It provides that ten per cent of the cost of construction with interest charges shall be assessed each year until the bonds are paid.

The expense of putting in sewer has been estimated to be about $32,000, and ten per cent of this including interest at 4 per cent will call for $3328.00 for the first year and will be reduced ten per cent each year and in about a dozen years it will be paid.

The corporation will be asked to decide on this at the coming annual meeting. It is questionable as to whether we can afford to have it or can we afford to get on without it.

It is for the voters to say. Figure it over and decide what best be done.

Dr. Intelligently, realizing there will be a town and village here long after all who are now living have passed away.

The health of a community is of first consideration. What of our present method of sewerage? Is it safe? What does those who ought to know say? Investigate and vote on it intelligently.

Cyrus Woodsum.

Cyrus Woodsum, died at his home on Main Street, Sunday, March 19th after a short illness with pneumonia.

Mr. Woodsum was born in Lebanon, April 8, 1825 the son of John and Bethsy (Hurd) Woodsum, and he attended school in his native town. He was a carpenter and worked at his trade in Jamaica Plains, Mass., and in Norway, where he had lived 45 years. In politics he was a republican and in religious a Universalist. He was a member of Norway Lodge, No. 14, O. O. F.

He married Vesta A. Shackley of Norway, Sept. 25, 1851. She died July 19, 1900. Since which time their only daughter, Olive A. Woodsum, has cared for her father.

Mr. Woodsum's home has been a home to many a young man and woman who have come to Norway to earn a livelihood and the boarder has been more like a member of the family than a stranger.

His home has always been open to the homeless and unfortunate and much of the time there has been such a one there, either a child or an elderly person.

Mr. Woodsum had a cheerful disposition that was not easily daunted by misfortune. He died happily what he believed to be his duty.

The funeral was held from his late home, Mar. 23, at 2 p. m. attended by Rev. C. E. Angell assisted by Rev. M. C. Ward.

Mrs. Caroline Sheeld Noble.

Death has again entered the home of a well-known and highly respected family in Los Gatos, California, taking away Mrs. Caroline Sheeld Noble, at 8:55 o'clock Thursday morning, March 9th, at the age of 77 years, 7 months and 9 days.

Mrs. Noble was a native of Norway and had lived in the Gem City for the last 24 years. She was the widow of the late B. H. Noble, who passed away last September, and is survived by C. H. Noble and Mrs. Cordes, a stepson and stepdaughter respectively of that city and stepdaughter, Mrs. A. Harriman of Oxford. She also has a brother living in Illinois and a sister in Maine.

Men's Annual Supper.

The Men's Bible class of the Universalist Sunday school will hold their annual supper and entertainment, Tuesday, March 28.

The men are taking great pains to make this one of the greatest events of the season.

Cold Roiled Ham, Pressed Meat, Mixed Pickles, Hot Buns, White Bread, Cream Pie, Apple Pie, Custard Pie, Gelatine Pudding with Whipped Cream, Assorted Cakes, Apples, Oranges, Coffee, Tea.

The supper will be followed by a mock trial, "The Great Umbrella Case," wherein it is alleged, that one of our most prominent business men, "did feloniously steal, take and carry away—contrary to the form of the statute—such case made and proved, and against the peace of said Commonwealth—with force of arms—the following property, to wit, an umbrella of the value of twenty-five dollars, etc." Great interest is centered in this case, since the defendant has always been known as the most scrupulous integrity.

The cast is made up thirty-two members who are working hard at their rehearsals. Supper at 6:30, entertainment at 8 o'clock.

Annual Meeting of Norway Savings Bank.

The annual corporation meeting was held in the directors' rooms of the Norway Savings Bank last Monday evening. Officers elected:—

S. K. Kneale, F. H. Noyes, G. L. Curtis, C. L. Hathaway, G. F. Ridlon, F. W. Sanborn, H. Andrews.

There has been an increase of $26,799.17 of deposits in the past year making a total of $521,920.13. The increase in number of depositors was 79 for the year. Total number of depositors 2,765.

Eosa Maine of Strong is visiting his mother, Mrs. Cora Maine.

F. W. Sanborn has been a victim of the grip cold for two weeks.

Mrs. Guy Frost of Auburn is visiting friends and relatives in town.

Mrs. Linnie Bartlett spent a few days with friends in Bridgton this week.

S. D. Andrews, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, is improving.

Rev. Dennis Jolin supplied the Baptist pulpit at Bryant's Pond, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grant of Woodstock were in town a few days last week.

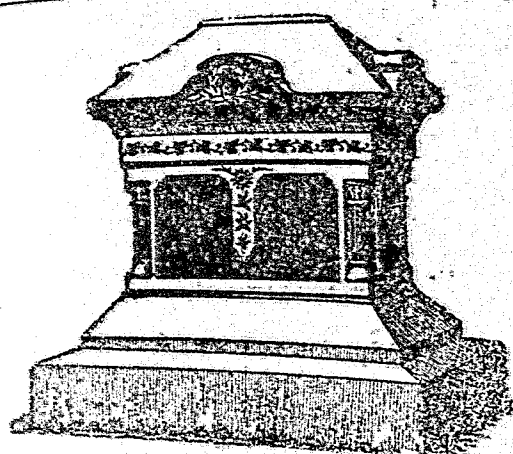

Horace Pike is ill at his home on Paris street, having suffered a shock first of the week.

Adventures of a Schoolma'am.

Dear ————No, I shall never forget my sojourn with you on the hill when I engaged to teach the "young idea." As I look back to those days they seem more like a grand lark than the ordinary grind of school life for the tedious part was so far outbalanced by the pleasant.

It would take a more skillful pen than mine to describe the wonderful scenery there stretched forth on every hand, but to a low-lander like myself, it was an inspiration whenever I gazed over the countless hills rolling away in the distance surrounded by Mt. Washington's dim outline; or to gaze down onto the lakes below, reflecting the sky in all its moods. How I loitered home, or rather to your home, nights after school taking in long, deep breaths of freedom after the day spent indoors with the children and the books.

Yes, I remember the first day's experience at school, with the stifling chimney flue that smoked us all out of doors, but it was none of my flock that performed this deed of "excellence." Of course it was laid to the "loopy" boy who lived in the neighborhood. All the misdemeanors committed in the community were laid to him and he was very handy in this respect. I remember the strange way he had of appearing suddenly when no one knew he was around and the uncanny way he stared at people. He seemed harmless enough, however, and called me "teacher" in the most respectful manner.

Not to be forgotten were the May basket parties. Do you remember one night when I was expecting one May basket, we listened at the crack of the door for the approach of the hangers, how John stopped the old tall clock so that we could hear better? I had heard that the party was coming so had engaged John and George to help do the "catching."

Then when we were chasing them, part of the supposed boys turned out to be girls dressed in trousers.

That party adjourned to the big barn floor to play games and I remember just as we were well under way, a flood of water came pouring down on our unsuspecting heads. One of the boys unseen had climbed up on the great beams with a pail of water and proceeded to baptize the helpless victims below.

In the fall term came the husking parties. You had two while I was there, a big one to which everyone was invited and a great feast of baked beans and three days' cooking was spread; also a smaller one where there were only a "select" few.

There was one scene at the small party which remains indelible in my memory. I can shut my eyes now and see that little party gathered around husking out the long yellow ears of corn in the circle of the lantern's light, our fantastic shadows dancing on the dim walls and ceiling.

Someone started a song and everyone joined in. Then you began singing a hymn, Mr. J. took the bass, John the tenor and I romped in on the alto when ever I knew the words. Ever since that night for me that hymn has been a classic. Its unadorned melody revealed a harmony and strength unknown to many a greater composition. Its simplicity and sincerity were in accord with the setting we gave it gathered around in the dim light. Like the strain of the hymn our work too, was simple, sincere and necessary, therefore beautiful.

I must close now. Ever yours
G. I. B.
Ottisfield, Maine, February, 1911.

Fryeburg.

Mrs. H. A. Blaisdell was called to Nor-ridgewood by the sickness and death of her father.

When Father was Elected.

Pa he's been elected master of the grange, and oh, the way he puts on airs you'd think it somewhat strange.

He parts his hair in the middle and wears a bright necktie and when he meets any body, he holds his head very high. He attends all the grange meetings, for miles and miles around he says it gives him courage and learns him
how to till the ground.

But I don't think its that at all. I think its the food he feeds. He goes to feed his stock, instead of to feed his mind. He goes away and leaves the chores and I have them all to do.

But when he comes home he says he's glad he went, for he learned a lot that was new. He never practices what he learns, that's why I think its strange, that he says it educates him, to just attend the grange. But if your pa ever gets elected you'll find it just as I say, and how you'll dread the coming of old grange meeting day.

GRAFTON.

George Muse has finished logging.

Arthur Parker was at South Paris, Saturday.

WEST BETHEL.

Bethel's Oldest Man.
Sylvanus Mason, Bethel's oldest man, passed from this life Thursday evening, March 16. Mr. Mason was born in Gilead, July 26, 1824.

In 1840 he married Isabel Bean, who died in February, 1910. He resided on a farm here which he cleared from an almost unbroken wilderness to its present state.

He was very proud of his old age and took much pleasure with the gold-headed cane presented by the Boston Post. He was a member of the Methodist church at Bethel.

The funeral was held at the home, Sunday, conducted by Rev. C. L. Banghart of Bethel. He leaves three sons, two granddaughters, two grandsons and three brothers.

Mrs. H. B. Harding is very ill.

Cora J. Mason and Pauline are in Portland for a few days.

John Carleton has purchased the so called Amos Scribner farm.

Jessie Howe and M. Angie Dingley of Lewiston were in town over Sunday.

Mrs. Annie Gupitl entertained her friend, Margaret Bingham, of Farmington, last week.

Pleasant Valley Grange enjoyed their visit with Gilead Grange at Gilead Friday evening very much. About forty members went and the 3d and 4th degrees were worked on seven.

RYEBURG.

The "father of the town" drives out with a good looking horse.

A. E. Saunders has arrived home from Portsmouth from a business trip.

It is reported by our local carpenters there is lots of work coming out in town this spring.

Haley & Howe broke camp, Tuesday. They caught a good amount of fish the last day's fishing.

The sidewalk will soon be under way, better lay them on top of the fine coating of snow as we have about two feet at this writing.

According to Wm. Gordon's report there has been 9 feet of snow fall in Ryeburg the past winter. We have now about two feet left.

Mr. Lakin of Bridgton has bought out Cole's livery business. Mr. Cole has been running the livery now about two years and has been always ready to serve the public in first class manner. Mr. Cole and son will be missed by the many friends they have made in town.

The drama Valley Farm played to the largest audience on record in town, Thursday night. Over 300 seats were sold and if the hall would seat more several more tickets would have been sold. Fine scenery was painted for the occasion. Every one pronounced it the finest executed play that was ever put on in town.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy in our recent bereavement and for the many beautiful tributes. May you be surrounded by as kind and helpful friends when your hour of trial comes.

Mrs. GEO. E. STEVENS.
MAUD L. STEVENS.

SOUTH WOODSTOCK.

George E. Stevens.

The community was saddened to hear of the death of Geo. E. Stevens, Friday morning at two o'clock. He had been very sick with pneumonia, when a kidney trouble set in and resulted in blood poisoning which caused his death.

He was a kind husband and father, friend and neighbor and will be missed very much. He was a member of the K. of P. and Franklin Grange and had held the office of selectman in town for three or four years, had also been road commissioner for several years.

He leaves a wife and daughter, a father, Dr. Otis Stevens of Oxford, and two sons of Massachusetts, who came to attend the funeral, which was held Sunday at the house at 1:30. Rev. Chester Groe Miller of South Paris, spoke comforting words to the bereaved family. The floral offerings were many and beautiful. The interment was in the family lot, near the house.

A Masquerade Ball.

From any angle of vision the masquerade ball given at Grange hall, South Waterford, on the evening of the 16th inst. was a pronounced success. More than forty couples were present, parties coming from Lovell, Sweden, Harrison and Bridgton to join with those from the different sections of Waterford.

Many of the costumes were excellent and all were much better than are usually seen on such occasions. Among them we noticed that of Marion Noble representing a lady of color; Mrs. H. C. Smith, a Spanish lady; Harriet Smith, evening star; Mrs. Wm. Jenkins, Nun; Mrs. W. J. Green, Gipsy; Mrs. W. Goodwin, Dutch woman; Mrs. Geo. Hill, lady of color; Mrs. C. H. Hill, Martha Washington; Mary Wiley, autumn; Mrs. Leon York, flower girl; Leola Sanderson, Queen of Hearts; Mrs. Arthur Kingman, flower girl; Bertha Bell, Queen of Hearts; Eva Haggood, flower girl; Miss E. Young, Night; Miss B. Young, Japanese girl; Wm. Coys, George Washington; Horace Smith, sunflower; Albert Hamilton, fool; C. Smith, clown; C. H. Hill, Monk; George Hill, Jack of Clubs; Arnold Abbott, clown; W. Haggood, gentleman of color; A. Kingman, gentleman of color.

The affair was under the management of H. C. Smith, who also furnished the refreshments. Everything passed off in a very smooth and satisfactory manner. Excellent music was furnished by the Packard family orchestra and participants and spectators were unanimous in the sentiment that it was one of the most enjoyable social events of the season, and will welcome the announcement of others of a similar nature.

Have "Good Luck" Each Baking Day

For "luck" lies mostly in the flour. The wise cook uses William Tell and knows her bread will be perfection—her cake a marvel of delicate lightness—her pastry tender and flaky.

William Tell Flour is made from Ohio Red Winter Wheat—which has no equal. There is only a limited supply—enough to go around among the housewives who have learned the value of perfect flour.

Supreme Judicial Court.

March Term, 1911.

The jury on the Rowe vs. Hill Lumber Co. case reported at four o'clock Thursday afternoon, after being out about five hours, the verdict being for the plaintiff for $800.

The next case was that of Wm. F. Hayford against V. H. Davis, Admr. The parties live in Hartford. This is an account of assumption for board, nursing, etc., of Alonzo F. Cox during his last illness and death. The plaintiff claims $1,778. Some of the time the charge was $5 a day. The defendant denies liability and also declares that the bill claimed is excessive and unreasonable. The jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff for $320. Taurus Attwood, esq., attorney for the defendant, filed a motion for a new trial and the case will be taken to the law court. Fred R. Dyer of Buckfield was the attorney for the plaintiff.

Judge Whitehouse filed reports as referee in four cases heard by him. In suit, Geo. W. Benson against Charles E. Hill, which is an action of trespass for cutting timber on land claimed by both parties, in Brownfield, the plaintiff was awarded $300.47. The division line between the parties was also settled.

In the scio Frank P. Howard against the Hill Lumber Co. of Brownfield, an action of assumpsit for labor, amounting to a sum of a little over $1000, the plaintiff was awarded $268.10.

In the paper suit of Denmark against Hiram, Judge Whitehouse decides that one Harry Pendexter had his settlement in Hiram on the 1st day of January, 1910, at which time the plaintiff was awarded the town of Cornish, which was sued at the same time by the town of Denmark on the same matter, that it might be determined in which of the three towns or elsewhere the alleged pauper had his settlement. That having been decided to be in Hiram, costs were awarded the town of Cornish, against the town of Denmark.

In the suit of Philip Ash of Rumford against Dexter E. Lamb of Bangor, an action for use of a pair of mules, and a set of double harnesses, amounting to $180 in all, Judge Cornish to whom the case had been referred, reported a judgment for costs of suit, for the defendant.

In the suit for damages for breach of contract for building a house at East Brownfield, of Edwin G. Gillet, administrator, against Frank W. Sparrow of South Portland, the referees, A. S. Kimball and F. A. Rumery, award the plaintiff the sum of $271.

The grand jury rose Friday forenoon and reported twenty-six indictments as follows:

William and Alfred Bulman of Waterford, breaking and entering and larceny.

George H. Seaver of Bethel, criminal assault, two indictments.

Theodore M. Twitchell of Sumner, black mail.

George Bradley and Wilfred Willette of Rumford, breaking and entering, two indictments; the same, malicious mischief, one indictment.

The same, and Gus Frost, breaking and entering.

Geo. A. Johnson and Wm. Thatcher of Rumford, keeping and depositing intoxicating liquor.

The same, nuisance.

John Watts of Rumford, nuisance, two indictments.

A. Mont Chase of Woodstock, nuisance.

J. J. Goss of Rumford, nuisance.

John Gilting of Rumford, common seller.

Fred Russell of Rumford, keeping and depositing intoxicating liquors.

Chas. St. John, alias Mike Bennett, keeping and depositing intoxicating liquors.

Stanley Barnes and Victor Vece of Rumford, keeping and depositing intoxicating liquors.

Benjamin Salvatore Dicesimo of Rumford, nuisance.

Richard of Rumford, nuisance.

Chas. Boutwell of Rumford, nuisance.

Joe Longes of Rumford, nuisance.

Geo. W. Carothers of Rumford, nuisance.

Frank J. Jansen, Rumford, nuisance.

John J. Jansen, Rumford, nuisance.

The following are the approved criminal cases from the Rumford F. I. municipal court—Joe Duran, Wm. McLeod, intoxication; Wm. Thacher, search and seizure; J. J. Jansen, search and seizure; 2 cases; Peter Bouchard, Salvatore Dicesimo, keeping and depositing; Alex. Siemon, assault; John Watts, Andy Peters, J. J. Gregory, single sale; same, Neil McFadden, search and seizure; Fred Russell, transportation; Frank J. Jansen, Geo. W. Carothers, search and seizure; Mike Bennett, Charles St. John, Earl Seinfeld, Charles E. Fernel, E. L. Curran, E. R. Hovers, Geo. G. Brown, keeping and depositing; Wm. Thatcher, keeping and depositing; Wm. Thatcher, keeping and depositing; O. M. Bibeau et al., claimants, intoxicating liquors.

A FIERCE NIGHT ALARM

is the horse, starting cough of a child, suddenly attacked by the croup. Often it aroused Lewis Chamblin of Manchester, O. R. R. No. 21 for their four children were greatly subject to croup. "Sometimes in severe attacks," he wrote "we were afraid they would die, but since we proved that a certain remedy Dr. King's New Discovery is, we have no fear. It cures the croup, whooping cough, colds or any throat or lung trouble." So do thousands of others. So may you. Asthma, Hay Fever, La Grippe, Whooping Cough, Hemorrhages, dry throat, 50c and $1.00. ## EAST PARIS.

Sledding holds good and people are still having lumber and pulp wood to South Paris.

Scott Colby bought a new incubator, set it up and tried it but it wouldn't go. He will send it back.

Grant Royal and Benjamin Taylor with their hounds drove Fox to his hole in Mr. Thayer's pasture. They undertook to dig him out but did not succeed.

There was a box supper at the Whitehouse schoolhouse Friday evening, Mar. 10 with the following exercises:

Singing—School.

Recitation—Willie Tuttle.

Song—Wm. W. Maxim.

Recitation—Teacher, Madeline Whitman.

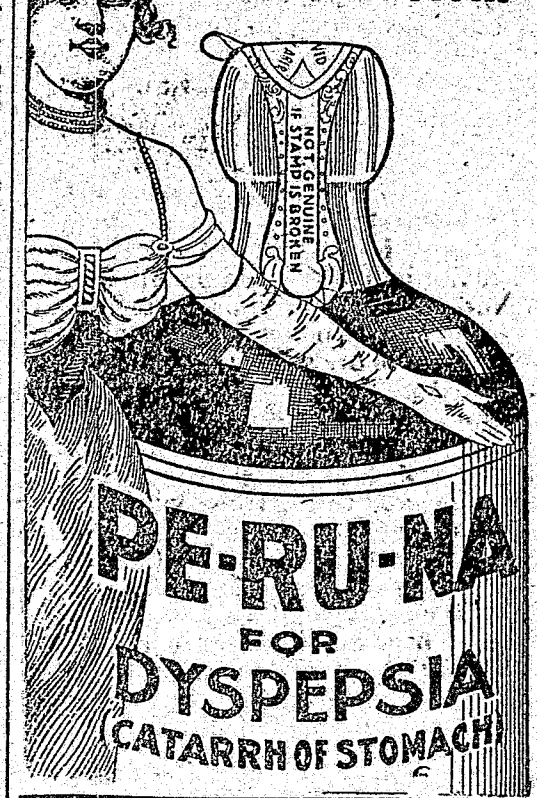

Song—Leon Thayer.

Song—Teacher, Madeline Whitman.

Singing—School.

After the exercises the young people danced. Forest Glover of Buckfield was violinist.

Are You Dead?

Catarrh is Probably the Cause. Get Rid of the Cause.

If you have catarrh and have constant ringing noises in your ears look into the matter at once.

It's a sure sign that catarrh is spreading and is making its way through the Eustachian tubes that lead from the nose to the ears.

When catarrh gets to the ears partial deafness follows. If you have ringing noises in your ears look into the matter at once.

To cure catarrh HYOMEL should be breathed through a pocket inhaler for about three minutes, four or five times a day. Just pour a few drops into the hard rubber inhaler and breathe it for a few minutes.

It kills the germs; soothes the irritation; heals the inflammation; stops the ringing, splitting and sniffling.

HYOMEL cures the throat, nose and mucous and prevents crusting in nose.

The complete HYOMEL outfit which includes the little indestructible hard rubber inhaler, a bottle of HYOMEL and full instructions for use costs $1.00.

Separate bottles of HYOMEL costs 50 cents at druggists everywhere, or at Noyes Drug Store who sell it on money back plan. Try it today for catarrh, coughs, colds or sore throat. Free trial bottle by addressing Booth's Hyomel Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

EAST STONEHAM.

A Strange Visitor.

As Mrs. Frank McAllister sat reading by the window March 11th, she heard a scratching, and thinking it was the cat got up to let him in, when a strange sight met her view.

Thinking it was a wolf, she quickly called for help. Leonard Milliken came with his rifle and shot him. Her strange visitor proved to be a coon.

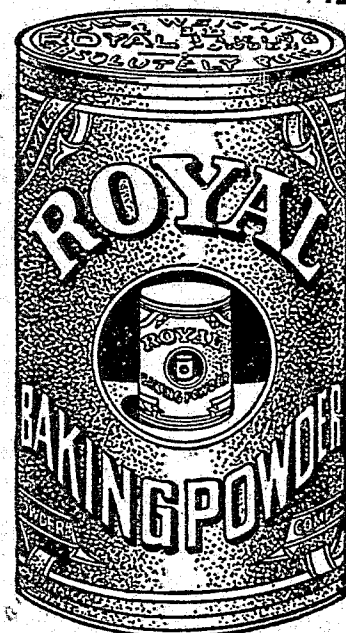

He had raked himself up on the window stool and scratched on the screen, not a foot from her face. It was very poor and only 3 feet in length.

WEST PARIS.

Grange Fair.
The Grange fair last week Wednesday was very successful. They had a candy table, apron and fancy work table and a table of Larkin soap products, a mystery tree and eight quilts. They had a good quantity and variety of aprons, which were nearly all sold. The quilts were all sold but two and one of those was a cradle quilt and the other was a very handsome pattern in red, white, and blue, a friendship quilt, which gave the society good profits last year.
Mrs. Lincea Briggs got up a $10 Larkin soap order, the premiums from which she got in soap products to the amount of $10 worth more all of which she gave to the Grange to sell. For this certificate premium she chose a doll carriage which was placed in L. H. Penley's store window and was given to the little girl who got the most votes, from which they realized $17 or $18. Leona Marston got the carriage and a little Maxfield girl in Greenwood, who had the second most votes, received a doll and set of toy dishes. The sale tables were all decorated with blue and orange bunting draped around the edges.
The good old fashioned baked bean supper was well patronized.
The entertainment in the evening was largely attended and very entertaining. Following is the program:

A tune, Coronation.....Choir
Song, Fare you well.....Mistress Bird
Music on piano.....Mary Stearns, Vera Stone
Reading, The prayer.....Mistress Wood
Tune, Old Kentucky home.....Choir
(a) Days of long ago.....Dana Grover
(b) Love song.....Dana Grover
(c) An old story.....Mistress Wood
(d) Red Wing.....Choir
(e) Ride, Chas. Martin; Piano, Mistress Chase
(f) Days of long ago.....Dana Grover
(g) Love song.....Dana Grover
(h) How my jany sweethearts.....Choir
(i) An old story.....Mistress Wood
(j) Tune, Quilting party.....Everett Chase and choir
Accompanist, Mistress Grover; choir conductor, C. Everett Chase; marshal, Edgar F. Barrows. The choir consisted of about 15 voices. Following are the names of those not mentioned in the above program—Mrs. Cora Stearns, Mrs. Mary Stevens, Mrs. E. F. Barrows, Mr. and Mrs. Lee A. Marshall, A. E. Marshall. All were contented to represent "the olden time," and truly they did look very old fashioned and comical in the extreme. At eight o'clock they all marched in from the cloak room at the entrance of the hall in single file, down through the middle aisle to the right entrance of the stage, led by the marshal, Edgar F. Barrows, who also announced the program.
Mr. Chase dressed in Colonial style, a long gray wig tied in a short braid behind and full gray beard, swallow-tailed coat, etc., took his place in front of the stage on a high stool and with his faithful beat out the time for all. Altogether he was very funny. It has been thought by some that Mr. Chase and Mrs. Stetson were the most completely disguised by their costumes of them all. Mr. John Wood of Stoneham Falls is an excellent reader. She charged her costume for her second reading to represent a young girl, which was a red waist with elbow sleeves, short black mitts with gold bracelets, a brown plaid skirt, a medium brown braided and trimmed with red ribbon and roses and gold earrings in her ears. She carried a small fan with which she acted out the beautiful part of the description of her "Sweethearts."

A crew of workers of Cumberland Lodge, I. O. O. F., Brighton, are to come and assist Denmark Lodge in working two degrees, Tuesday night of this week.

Monday morning presented one of the most beautiful scenes we ever looked upon on the face of nature. Everything was clad in pure white, speaking to Humanity, be clean.
